The Staff

Coach Jay Foster

Coach Foster has completed his eighth season as the head coach at Clarion University. The 2009 PSAC West "Coach of the Year" led the Golden Eagles to eight wins, the most since 1996 at Clarion, and finished the season on a six-game winning streak in 2009. In 2002, the former defensive coordinator was a National AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year finalist along with being an AFCA Division II finalist for Assistant Coach of the Year. Coach's success includes 11 post-season games, seven of those being NCAA national playoff games. He has been a part of four PSAC-West titles, two PSAC-East titles, five Division III Conference Championships, and two Meadowlands Cups (awarded to the number one team in the east).

Assistant Coaches

Clarion's coaching staff was instrumental in one of the biggest turnarounds in PSAC history. They led the Golden Eagles to a five-game turnaround in 2009. This was accomplished with a group of young players who applied successful coaching strategies in one of the toughest Division II conferences in the nation.

Dave Durish/Chris Weibel

Coach Durish and Coach Weibel have produced an NFL offensive lineman, three Division II national All-Star game participants, the 2009 PSAC West "Offensive Player of the Year," the 2007 PSAC West "Rookie of the Year," 20 All Conference players, 10 All Region, and two All Americans. The Golden Eagles' offense was one of the most potent in the PSAC in 2009.

Dwayne Martin/Brian Steiner

The Golden Eagles defense became one of the most stubborn in the PSAC in 2009 finishing in the top five in the PSAC in scoring defense, total defense, rush defense, and in sacks. They also produced the top tackler in the PSAC West. Coach Martin and Coach Steiner have produced the 2013 PSAC West "Defensive Player of the Year", 13 All Conference, six All Region and four All-Americans here at Clarion.
